Free Author Talk with Larry Millman

JUNEAU – Author Lawrence “Larry” Millman will discuss his latest book, At the End of the World: A True Story of Murder in the Arctic on Saturday, September 23, at 2 pm at the Father Andrew P. Kashevaroff (APK) State Library, Archives, and Museum, followed by a book signing at the Store at the APK. The APK is located at 395 Whittier St.

At the End of the World is the true story of a mass murder in the remote Belcher Islands in 1941. Millman draws comparisons between the violence of the incident with today’s dependence on technology. Millman is the author of 16 books, including A Kayak Full of Ghosts, Giant Polypores and Stoned Reindeer, and Lost in the Arctic. As a mycologist, he has studied fungi all over the world, but especially in his own backyard in New England. He has made over 40 trips and expeditions to the Arctic and sub-Arctic.

A person experiencing a disability who needs accommodation for events hosted by the Alaska State Library, Archives, and Museum can contact the Division’s ADA coordinator at (907) 465-2988 to make any necessary arrangements.

The Alaska State Library provides research services for state employees, assists historical researchers and the public, manages Talking Book services for Alaskans with visual impairments, and collects Alaska-related books, photographs, manuscripts, newspapers, government documents, and periodicals. Hours at the Alaska State Library are Tuesday-Friday from 10AM to 4PM or Mondays by arrangement. For more information about the Library and its services, please visit <http://library.alaska.gov/>.
